> Probably not calling today...I am very down. I went to court yesterday and > they put me on electronic home confinement. I can only leave the house to > go to my medical treatments and church. Other than that I can't even go in > the yard. I'm wearing an electronic ankle. I can't travel or even visit > clients, so I can't even earn any money....so, we're going to have to put > the house up for sale and I'm just totally feeling soooooooo guilty. I can't > even look at Mary and the kids.
> Keep your chin up and do better in life than me.
